

28 Age of Treason

BY JUSTINE SHARROCK

Inside the rising movement of soldiers, cops, and sheriffs who believe it's their constitutional duty to resist a tyrannical Obama administration

SPECIAL REPORT ON HUMAN RIGHTS

36 For Us Surrender Is Out of the Question

BY MAC MCCLELLAND

I'd signed up to teach English to Burmese democracy activists. Little did I know that their real mission was far more dangerous—and that the US considered them terrorists.

PLUS: The killer apps inside your iPhone

52 Blood and Treasure

BY ADAM HOCHSCHILD

The people of Congo might not be so poor if their country weren't so rich.

66 Dr. Clooney, I Presume?

BY DAVE GILSON

Madonna, Oprah, Brangelina, and Paris battle for control of Africa's most precious resource: publicity.

68 Cash on Delivery

BY SCOTT CARNEY

Everything can be outsourced to India, even pregnancy. Inside the rent-a-womb business.

PLUS: Tracing hair extensions to their roots

76 Game Changer

BY STEPHANIE MENCIMER

How a master of the political dark arts went from shilling for Big Tobacco and George H.W. Bush to fighting like hell for gay marriage

80 A Place for Us

PHOTOGRAPHS BY ERICA MCDONALD

TEXT BY JENNIFER GONNERMAN

Will New York's mentally ill adults ever get the homes the state promised them?

76